TAX TREATMENT:	Schedule K-1 pass-through during LLC phase; converts to standard 1099 treatment upon C-Corp election.

2. Term-by-Term Explanation

2.1 Issuer and Structure

The issuer is ATLAS Travel Club LLC, a Manager-Managed Limited Liability Company formed under the laws of Delaware and Wyoming. The Manager-Managed structure centralizes operational authority in the Manager (the founder) while preserving investor economic rights through the SAFE. This structure is preferred at the angel stage for its administrative simplicity, pass-through taxation (Schedule K-1), and flexibility to convert to a C-Corporation when institutional capital requires it.

2.2 Securities and Conversion Mechanics

The security offered is the Y Combinator Post-Money SAFE (LLC Edition). The SAFE automatically converts into Preferred Membership Units upon the closing of a Qualifying Equity Financing raising not less than $1,000,000. A $75,000 investment at the $1.75M valuation cap implies approximately 4.3% membership interest at conversion (assuming no discount applies).

Corporate Conversion Flexibility. At the election of the Manager, the Company may convert into a Delaware C-Corporation immediately prior to a qualified financing round to accommodate institutional venture funds, preserving all investor rights, valuation caps, and Section 1202 QSBS eligibility. Section 1202 of the Internal Revenue Code provides up to $10 million or 10x basis exclusion from federal capital gains tax on qualified small business stock held for 5+ years — a meaningful upside benefit that is only available to C-Corp shareholders and is preserved through this conversion path.

2.3 Liquidity Event Protection

In the event of a change of control or IPO prior to a Qualifying Equity Financing, the investor receives the greater of (i) the purchase amount returned in cash, or (ii) the fair market value of the Preferred Membership Units calculated at the $1.75M valuation cap. This protects downside while preserving upside.

2.4 Information Rights and Tax Treatment

All participating angel investors receive quarterly financial updates and monthly KPI newsletters for the duration of the SAFE's life. During the LLC phase, investors receive Schedule K-1 pass-through tax documents; upon C-Corp conversion, treatment converts to standard 1099 dividend reporting. Investors should consult their own tax advisor regarding the implications of K-1 pass-through income.

2.5 Investment Process

To subscribe: (1) execute the Mutual NDA, (2) review the Investor Prospectus (PPM) and 5-Year Financial Model, (3) confirm commitment amount via email to executive@atlas-travel-club.com, (4) sign the YC Post-Money SAFE (LLC Edition) via DocuSign, (5) wire funds within 10 business days of signature. The Company will confirm allocation and provide wiring instructions within 48 hours of commitment.
